

Ferretti INFYNITO 90

Ferretti INFYNITO 90

The Ferretti Yachts INFYNITO 90 redefines long-range cruising, combining explorer-inspired design with exceptional comfort and versatility. Designed for extended journeys, she delivers impressive range, smooth performance, and a true “just like home” experience on the water.

Featuring a fast displacement hull, the yacht offers efficient cruising over long distances, with the ability to travel up to 1200 nautical miles at economical speed. Spacious exterior areas, including a customizable cockpit and the signature All-Season Terrace, create a seamless connection with the sea, offering a unique onboard lifestyle in any weather conditions.

The interior is designed around open spaces, natural light, and flexibility. Multiple layout options, including a skylounge, gym, and various main and lower deck configurations, allow owners to tailor the yacht to their lifestyle. The use of sustainable materials and the integration of a solar roof further enhance the onboard experience, combining innovation with environmental responsibility.
